

New Jersey's Best 50 Women in Business Press Release

Trenton, New Jersey February 20, 2008- Toyi Price Ward was recently named one of New Jersey's Best 50 Women in Business. The award program, produced by NJBIZ, New Jersey's premiere business news publication is sponsored by Wachovia Bank, Lowenstein Sandler PC and Withum Smith+Brown.

The Best 50 Women in Business awards program honors New Jersey's most dynamic women in business who have been making headlines in their fields. The awards recognize the impact women business owners and business leaders have in creating jobs and building communities in New Jersey. To qualify, a nominee had to meet the following criteria: live and/or work in New Jersey, and hold significant authority for decision making in a for-profit business or company. An independent panel of judges selected the top 50 candidates based on dedication to business growth, professional and personal accomplishments, community involvement, and advocacy for women.

"We are truly fortunate to have the opportunity to recognize this outstanding group of women," said David A. Schankweiler, CEO of Journal Publications, parent company of NJBIZ. "As business and community leaders, they are constantly redefining success within and outside the business arena. On behalf of NJBIZ, we would like to thank and congratulate these fifty outstanding women for their dedication to New Jersey's future." NJBIZ and the program sponsors will honor this year's 50 winners with an awards ceremony on Monday, March 31 at the Palace in Somerset, NJ. In addition, winners will be highlighted in a special supplement to NJBIZ on April 7, 2008.
